Clear clutter from floors, shelves, tables, room corners, and kitchen countertops.

Maximise the available light, as good lighting is a photographer's greatest ally.

Cushions, flowers, fireplaces, and other decor elements that bring color and ambiance.

Avoid leaving towels, oven gloves, and other hanging items on display.

Keep coats, robes, slippers, and similar items out of sight.

External Photography: Ensure gardens and driveways are tidy, with no cars parked on the driveway.

At Excell Digital, we are committed to delivering top-quality property photography and video tours. We understand the crucial impact of visual content in selling and renting properties, which is why we've created this guide to help you prepare your property for our shoot.

Our photographer can assist with moving items and furniture to improve image quality, but it's ultimately your responsibility to ensure the space is ready.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or concerns about our service.
